

E-Newsletter N0001/Mar-2024

Dear development partners, Welcome to the April 2024 newsletter from the JCAC network..

THIS MONTH ON OUR FORUM How community journalists fight against fake news

Summary of member contributions

Evambe Thompson, radio presenter at Bonakanda Rural Radio, fights fake news through radio productions, encouraging responsibility in sharing information. He denounces false information, collaborates with institutions and raises awareness in the community about the impacts of fake news. Noun Community Radio shares the concern about fake news, emphasizing the importance of field visits, verification, investigation, and awareness-raising to counter this problem. Read more...

The term “infox” in the local language

Radios

Noun community radio
Bonakanda Rural Radio

Significations

"buzz", "Mbe'e" and "Ntan" "Fouop" in Bamoun.
(Mokpé) is called; Nganeli

RECENT NEWS

JCAC members participated in a workshop aimed at strengthening collaborations among French-speaking initiatives to fight against disinformation

Learn more...

“Training for community radio stations in Central Africa in fact-checking techniques and on protecting their audiences against the effects of disinformation”

CAMEROON

CAR

CHAD

Learn more...

Do you have training opportunities for community journalists?

Feel free to contact the JCAC secretariat